

- 5 a. Examine the way in which Levi-Strauss analyses kinship structures to discover the structures and patterns of social relationships.

OR

- b. Critically discuss how Habermas used the concept of the public sphere to critique capitalist society.
- 6 a. Assess how surveillance subjects people to a new form of discipline according to Foucault. Use relevant examples to illustrate your answer.

OR

- b. Describe Goffman's concept of dramaturgy.
- 7 a. What is social capital? What is the relevance of social capital for understanding social relations in contemporary Sri Lankan society?

OR

- b. Describe the basic characteristics of the life world according to Schultz.

Part 2

1. You have been asked to design a study to examine views on religion among university students. Describe the steps you need to take to design this study and choose the appropriate methodology.
2. Discuss the difference between probability sampling and non-probability sampling. How does a researcher decide if he or she should use probability sampling or non-probability sampling?
3. What is comparative research and what are some of the problems you may encounter when doing comparative research?

All rights Reserved**